Yanks Trim Griffis 4 to 0—Local Athletes Feature Penn Relay

Here's the Complete Yankee Team That New York Fans Hope to See Win the Pennant

Poor Fielding Cause Of Nationals' Defeat

Ray Caldwell Allows Griffis
but Three Hits and Yanks
Win by 4 to 0.

JOHNSON IS HAMMERED

By WILLIAM PEET.

New York, April 24.—There was nothing in the brand of baseball presented by the Griffins against the Yankees here this afternoon that smacked of winning pennants, for puny hitting and Class Z fielding by the Nationals gave New York an easy 4 to 0 victory.

With Walter Johnson in the box, it looked like a romp for Washington, notwithstanding that the great and only Walter was opposed by Ray Caldwell, the Yankee's best all-arounder, but Johnson was hit hard while Caldwell gave out side three meekly.

A cursory glance at the box score fails to reveal a single error committed by New York's name. Errors by Morgan and Almsmith caused most of the damage, but in order to be fair, it must be stated that Caldwell pitched airtight ball, and the only alibi we think of is that with good support behind Johnson the struggle would have gone into extra innings with the Griffins standing as good a show as the Yankees to breeze in first.

Five Flaky Hits.

Of the eleven hits charged against Johnson, five of these were flaky. The big fellow unhooked more "stuff" today than he has so far shown this season. Caldwell was easy enough to hit, but Washington's drives invariably slid into the outstretched hands of some opposing fielder.

In six out of the nine innings Washington had chances to put over runs. A double play nipped an early rally in the first, but in the third and fourth hits were not forthcoming when needed. The same holds true of the seventh, while in the ninth the crowd got into its money as Acosta started with a single. Foster batted to Cook, Mullan singled to right and stole second. Gandil batted to Pipp and when Rondeau walked, the bases were cleared. Morgan might have made things mighty interesting with a safe walk-off, but instead he fouled to Sweeney and ended the game.

Singles by Cree and Peckinpaugh, bunched with errors by Morgan and Almsmith, gave New York a couple of runs in the fourth. Hartzell's single, a double by Pipp past Gandil, and another error contributed by Morgan, together with infield scratches by Cook and Peckinpaugh, added two more tallies in New York's half of the sixth.

Rondeau's Fielding Features.

Pipp and Rondeau carried off the fielding features. The last named, in the Yankee third threw out Boone at the plate when Boone attempted to score from third on Caldwell's single up left field.

SLIM SALLEE HOLDS CUBS TO TWO HITS

Cardinals Play Wonderful Defensive Game and Chicago Loses by 3 to 0 Count.

St. Louis, April 24.—Supported by an impenetrable defense, "Slim" Sallee, of the Cardinals, pitched a shut-out game against the Cubs today, 3 to 0. He allowed the Cubs but two hits. A pass to Beck and singles by Snyder and Huggins brought in the initial run for the Cardinals. The surplus due came in the seventh and eighth. Score:

Count.

Boston, April 24.—Pennock did not allow the Red Sox a hit after the second inning today, but he gave nine bases in balls, hit a batsman, and made two wild pitches. Meanwhile, the Athletics pounded Leonard and the Boston Red Sox hard and won, 6 to 3. Ruth and Foster, who succeeded Leonard in the box, both held the Mackmen hitless, but were wild. Score:

Blue and White Finishes Four and

Title to St. Alban's.

Philadelphia, April 24.—One world's record and three intercollegiate marks fell by the wayside in the furious assault of the pick of America's college and school athletes, representing eighty colleges scattered from coast to coast in the twenty-first annual relay carnival of the University of Pennsylvania on Franklin Field this afternoon.

The new world's figures went on the books when the University of Pennsylvania out-mile relay team driven to a desperate finish by the game quartet of Harvard runners, covered the distance in 2:18, a fifth of a second better than the best record made by the Irish-American A. C. of New York.

The Washington colleges and schools made a record approached by no other city in the country. Three relay victories and three second places went to the credit of the fleet runners from the nation's Capital. The greatest victory was gained by the Maryland Agricultural College, which defeated the Southern College of Virginia, 4 to 0.

Local Boat Club Rows Plucky Race, but Navy Crew Wins by Length and One-half.

Annapolis, Md., April 24.—Although the eight-oared shell crew of the Annapolis Boat Club of Washington rowed a plucky race all the way, it lost to the Midshipmen's second crew this afternoon. The Navy crew was one of a series of three-oared events on the Severn River in which Harvard's varsity eight triumphed over the Navy first crew and the Annapolis crew.

Detroit Rumps Home Winners, 6 to 0.

Cleveland, April 24.—The Tigers rumped off with the game today, 6 to 0, with scarcely an effort. The Indians presented a decidedly patched up line-up with Turner and Barabara out of the running, owing to minor injuries, and their substitutes failed to acquit themselves with credit. Bernie Boland, Detroit's recruit pitcher, held the Indians safe and sound. fielding bordered upon the unconventional, and since coming his lot with the minor league club has lived up to the reputation which he established here.

URSINUS EASY FOR CATHOLIC U.

Brooklanders Capture Free-hitting Game from Pennsylvanians, 8 to 3.

DONNELLY THE FEATURE

Fahey Shows Good Form. Allowing
but Five Hits—Strikes Out Eleven.

The Catholic University had no trouble in disposing of Ursinus yesterday on Brookland field in a free-hitting game, filled with three-base bunts and singles, by the score of 8 to 2.

Bill Donnelly was the heavy hitting star of the day, as he had a perfect day at the bat. Out of four times up he connected for a homer, and three singles.

After the second inning it was only a question of how many runs the C. U. boys would pile up, as they were hitting Ziegler at will and to all corners of the field. He allowed twelve hits in the seven innings that he worked, being relieved by Johnson in the eighth, who retired the side in one-two-three order in the ninth.

Fahey on the mound for C. U., had an easy time, as he only allowed 5 hits and kept them well scattered through the game. He struck out eleven and did not pass a man. Score:

Philadelphia, April 24.—The Phillies lost their first game of the season today, 10 to 2, being powerlessly routed by Tom Hughes. The Braves knocked Mayer out of the box in the first three innings, and found O'Leary easy. The Phillies only runs were home-run drives by Becker and Luderus. Schmidt and Moran also hit the ball hard. Score:

Veteran Giant Hurler in Poor Form
and New York Club Loses,

Brooklyn, April 24.—Mathewson was in poor form today and the Dodgers won, 7 to 5. Errors by Doyle helped the locals materially. Outabaw started for Brooklyn, making three hits, one run, and helping bring in four runs. After Brooklyn had tied the score in the sixth they took the lead in the seventh. Doyle dropped Ragans' bouncer and O'Leary singled. Daubert sacrificed, moving Ragan to third and O'Mara to second. Schmitt singled, but Ragan was called at the plate.
